Join our growing firm

Blandy & Blandy is recognised as one of the leading and longest established law firms in the Thames Valley, with offices in Reading, Henley-on-Thames and Wokingham.

With a team of over 65 specialist solicitors and advisers and 140 colleagues, we are here to represent our clients in life and business, committed to developing long-lasting relationships and to delivering outstanding client care.

As a people business, we recognise that our continued growth and success relies on us developing a strong team of highly talented, ambitious and committed colleagues who share and embody our values of excellence, integrity and approachability.

We acknowledge that every member of our team has a valued role to play in helping to deliver the trusted legal services and outstanding client care on which our leading reputation is based. We seek to support colleagues' ongoing professional development and longer-term career development, whilst acknowledging everyone's individual contribution and celebrating our shared achievements.

A high proportion of our team have worked with us for many years, and we are very proud of our welcoming and supportive culture and firm belief in the importance of a positive work-life balance.

Our successful approach is reflected in a series of rankings and awards, including being recognised as a top tier firm in Chambers UK Guide, Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Guide and The Legal 500, and through the excellent client feedback we continue to receive. Since 2003, we have also held the Law Society's Lexcel quality mark, which acknowledges firms that achieve excellence in legal practice management, compliance and client care.

We are confident you will find that joining our firm is an excellent next step in your career.

This role

We are seeking a Senior Solicitor to join our Property Disputes team which sits within the firm's Dispute Resolution department, recommended in both the Legal 500 and Chambers High Net Worth (HNW) Guide. Experience relating to Commercial Litigation is also desirable

- Keeping clients fully informed of the range of services that the firm offers.
- Supervising members of the team, particularly trainee solicitors, from time to time.
- Supporting business development and networking activities.

The successful candidate will

- Have at least a 2.1 degree.
- Have specialist property litigation experience.
- Be enthusiastic and hard working.
- Have excellent interpersonal skills with good written and verbal skills.
- Have experience of business development and networking.
- Have worked as a member of a team and share our values of excellence, integrity and approachability.

"Blandy & Blandy has a strong team."
